NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Fort George Electoral District

Project No. 1126—Northern Trans-Provincial Highway, Construction, Tabor Lake—Willow River (Section 2), Station 196+00 to Station 540+00 (6.52 Miles).

SEALED TENDERS, marked "Tender for Project No. 1126—N.T.P.H., Tabor Lake—Willow River, Section 2," will be received by the Minister of Highways, in his office at the Parliament Buildings, Victoria, B.C., up to 2 p.m. (Pacific Daylight Saving time) on Tuesday, the 12th day of July, 1960, and opened in public at that time and date.

Plans, specifications, and conditions of tender may be obtained from the Department of Highways, 635 Burrard Street,

VICTORIA COLLEGE LIBRARY
VICTORIA, B. C.

Vancouver 1, B.C., or from the undersigned, for the sum of ten dollars ($10), which is not refundable.

Each tender must be accompanied by a certified cheque or a bid bond in an amount equal to five per cent (5%) of the tender price. This cheque or bond shall be forfeited if the tenderer declines to enter into contract. If a bid bond is used, a performance bond in the amount of one hundred per cent (100%) of the tendered sum, in a form acceptable to the Minister of Finance, must then be provided by the successful bidder prior to the award of the contract. If a deposit cheque is used, it shall be retained and forfeited if the contractor fails to carry out the work contracted.

Tenders must be made out on the forms supplied and enclosed in the envelope furnished.

Tenderers must submit with their tenders a list stating the type, capacity, and present location (so that inspection can be made if necessary) of the equipment in their possession or at their disposal which is immediately available for the carrying-out of the work within the time-limit specified without in any way curtailing or delaying any Departmental project that may be under contract at this date. No tender will be considered which does not contain this information.

No tender will be accepted or considered which contains an escalator clause or any other qualifying conditions, and the lowest or any tender will not necessarily be accepted.

It is preferred that tenderers submit with their tenders a schedule of proposed construction operations showing estimated monthly progress for each phase of the construction work.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY

PRIVATE BILLS

Excerpt from Standing Orders Relating to Private Bills

100. (1) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

(a) A printed copy of such Bill;

(b) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;

(c) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring $10\frac{3}{4}$ inches by $7\frac{1}{2}$ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated January 5th, 1949.

E. K. DEBECK,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

COMPANIES ACT

No. 48131.

NOTICE is hereby given that "Western Football News Publishing Co. Ltd." was incorporated under the Companies Act on the 24th day of June, 1960.

The Company is authorized to issue ten thousand shares without nominal or par value.

The address of its registered office is 44, 553 Granville Street, Vancouver, B.C.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a) To establish, print, publish, and manage a newspaper or newspapers in and circulating throughout the City of Vancouver and in the Province of British Columbia, and generally throughout the Dominion of Canada, and elsewhere, and to carry on the business of newspaper publishers, printers, typefounders, booksellers, stationers, and advertising agents, and generally to carry on any other business, whether manufacturing or otherwise, which may seem to the Company capable of being carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, either directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or to render profitable any of the Company's property, franchises, business, or rights:

(b) To acquire, take over, and manage the whole or any parts of the business, property, assets, and liabilities of any person or persons, company or companies, corporation or corporations carrying on any business wholly or in part similar to that which this Company is authorized to carry on, or take over and possess any property of such persons, companies, or corporations suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(c) To apply for and obtain copyright or copyrights to any literary publication, books, pamphlets, lithographic work, or works of art, and generally to hold, transfer, and absolutely dispose of the same on such terms as the Company may think fit, and generally to carry on the business of general news-vendors, book publishers and sellers, and generally publishers and vendors of all literary work, and works of art, newspapers and periodicals:

(d) To enter into partnership or any arrangement for sharing the profits, union of interest, or co-operation with any person, partnership, or company, or otherwise, with any person or persons carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company, and to lend money or guarantee the contracts of or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares, stock, and securities of any such company, and to sell, dispose of, hold, or reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(e) To purchase, take, or otherwise acquire, and hold shares in any other company having altogether or in part similar objects to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to benefit this Company in any manner whatsoever, as to the directors of this Company shall be deemed expedient, or generally to acquire, purchase, take, carry on, manage, and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, assets, and liabilities of any person, partnership, or company carrying on any business such as this Company is authorized to carry on, or which is similar to any of the objects of this Company, or which is possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(f) To enter into any arrangement with any governments or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) which may seem conducive to the Company's objects, or any of them, and to obtain from any such authorities or governments any rights, privileges, and concessions which the directors may think desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(g) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any part of the property, assets, and liabilities of said company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(h) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real and personal property, and any rights and privileges which to the said Company may seem necessary or convenient to the purposes of its business, and in particular any land, buildings, leases, easements, machinery, plant, and stock-in-trade, and other appurtenances incidental or necessary to the business of this Company:

(i) To construct, maintain, improve, and alter any buildings, plant, premises, or works necessary or convenient for the purposes of this Company:

(j) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately in use in such manner as may from time to time be determined; to lend money to such persons and on such terms as may seem expedient, and particularly to customers and others having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the fulfilment of contracts by any such person or persons:

(k) To borrow, raise, or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall see fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's assets, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities from time to time:

(l) To recompense any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in organizing or assisting to organize this Company, or the promotion thereof, and in placing or assisting to place any of the shares of the Company's capital, debentures, or other securities of this Company, or generally in or about the formation or promotion of the Company, or the conduct of its business:

(m) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(n) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company shall think fit, and in particular for the shares, debentures, and securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(o) To adopt such means of making known the business of the Company as may seem expedient, and in particular by advertising in the press, by circulars, by contests, by purchase and exhibition of such things as may seem expedient to the directors, and by publication of books, periodicals, and by grants, prizes, rewards, and donations:

(p) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, mortgage, lease, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(q) To do all such other things as shall be incidental and conducive to the attainment of the above objects, and generally to do and carry on all things and matters whatsoever as the Legislature of British Columbia has power to grant and authorize to be carried on:

(r) To establish, carry on, undertake, and manage the business of lithographers, job printers, and publishers, compositors, book-binders, general bindery business, book publishers, and generally all kinds and sorts of job printing, and publishing work, electroplating, engraving, and allied work.
